Partners For Community Living is a partnership between two nonprofit agencies in Dayton, Ohio - Choices In Community Living and Resident Home Association. Our two agencies share the same values, mission and commitment to assuring access to opportunities in the community for people with intellectual/developmental disabilities. Our services include safe and nurturing homes; Semi-Independent Living; Adult Day Services; Non- Medical Transportation Services; Respite Care; Adult Shared Living and Supported Employment. Our services are provided 365-days-a year, 7-days- a-week, 24-hours a day.

Partners supports the mission of our agencies through an active and innovative volunteer program, the development of numerous community partnerships, events and activities, advocacy and awareness efforts, and a variety of fundraising efforts (including Jingle Bucks) to add to the quality of life for the people we serve. Partners For Community Living was named the 2015 Community Member of the Year by the Ohio Provider Resource Association (OPRA.) Partners is the executive producer of the nationally distributed and award-winning film documentary on de-institutionalization, Lest We Forget: Silent Voices. Also available Home from Purgatory: Freedom, Choice and Life after Christmas in Purgatory, published in 2017 by Xlibris Publishing and available on amazon.com.
